Accessing the Securing the Human Videos

Reminder: If you had completed the Information Security Education Program last year (2015-2016), you are only responsible for completing the Mastery Assessment. Community members who did not complete the Education Program last year are responsible for completing the full program. If you are not sure if you had completed the program last year, contact the Dean's Office or your supervisor for clarification.

- 1) Under the Securing the Human Video Modules topic, click on the Securing the Human Videos icon.

2) Securing the Human Video Modules

Please click on the Securing the Human Videos icon below to begin viewing the Securing the Human video modules. There are 11 short videos to view, and should take you approximately 32 minutes.

About SANS Securing the Human:
Securing the Human is an Information Security Awareness training program created by SANS, one of the leading providers of Information Security training and education. Securing the Human is used by a broad range of clients, including corporations, governments, as well as other Colleges and Universities. Read more at www.securingthehuman.org.
